

THE Secret
FOX<sub>co.</sub>

Hello

gorgeous

amazing

& most talented

hairstylist

Srsly you rock!

We are on the hunt for the best of the best

Talented professionals who think education in our industry is kinda important

THE Secret FOX

is a collaboration between The Fox & the Hair & Secret Salon Society

We both share a passion for unpretentious, real education.
We love discovering new talent & empowering people to show off their skills.

We also love Social Media & know that's where everyone is at.

The Secret Fox Education delivers monthly training to Salons all over the globe at an affordable price, in an accessible way.

Why wouldn't we want you!

(you are awesome AF)

You are talented.
You are respected.

You inspire your peers and are a role model.

You are a rule breaker & a game changer

But above all else, you know your shit

How

you can help

Every month we offer our network the opportunity to be educated.

We deliver classes via a Facebook Live Tutorial, into our closed group.

We love this style of delivery as it is accessible from any device any where, any time, and questions can be answered as they are asked.

It is also organic and real.

We are offering you the opportunity to showcase what you love to do, add to your body of work and contribute to the industry in a positive way.

The Steps

1. You tell us what you want to teach (we already know what you rock at)
2. Together we set a time (3-4hours) & you find some models
(willing participants/victims)
3. We turn up at your salon & live stream into our group (using all our fancy equipment)
4. You would then need to be available to answer Q's
(for about a month)

We provide the technical.
You provide the talent.

Where
to from here?

(lets do this!)

We will be in touch

(stalk you on messenger)

to confirm your date soon

(lock that shit in)
